Others Who Continue the Fight Against New York Landlords Will Be Dispossessed - Marshals Are Prepared for Trouble in Serving Writs To-day-Expect Settlement.

New York, Jan. 7.-Judge Sanders disposed of nearly 500 more dispossess cases in the Second Municipal Court, in Madison street, to-day, and his action in settling the cases en masse, except where the proceedings have nothing to do with Estate of Caroline W. Judge Sanders delayed the serving of the dispossess notices issued on Monday until to-morrow in the belief that with eviction threatening the "strikers" would come to their senses and come to terms with their landlords. It is probable that the heavy rainstorm of to-day helped to settle things, too, in many cases, Some Will Fight On,

WANTS OIL BOND INCREASED.

Chicago District Attorney Thinks Amount Too Small.

Chicago, Jan. 7 .- With assertions that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana has assets amounting to more than $27,000,000 and earns approximately $10,000,000 a year, District Attorney E. W. Sims to-day applied to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for an increase of the supersedeas bond of that corporation, which has appealed from the $29,240,000 fine imposed by District Judge K. M. Landis. Judges Grosscup, Baker, and Seaman, sitting in the Court of Appeals, received the government's petition and gave John S. Miller, attorney for the Standard Oil Company, two weeks' time in which to answer the petition.

At the same time, Mr. Miller suggested to the judges that they would be asked to certify the vital question of the appeal to the consideration of the United States Supreme Court. This question is whether the Elkins law, under which the oil company was indicted, was or was not repealed by the later passage of the Hepburn act of 1906. The oil company was indicted after the Hepburn act was passed, and there is now pending before the Supreme' Court the same question in the case of the United States against the Great Northern Railway Company.
